DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the Wilmington Journal.

FOR GOVERNOR—THOMAS S. ASHE.

We have hoisted at the head of our columns the name of Thomas S. Ashe as the candidate for Governor of North Carolina. We thank the State Executive Committee for this nomination. It carries us back to the good old days of the Republic, when such men as Dudley, and Morehead and Graham and their worthy successors filled the Executive Chair, with honor to themselves and honor to the State.

We need say nothing of New Hanover or this Congressional District. The name of Ashe is a tower of strength among our people. It has been eminent among our great men from the days of the Revolution of 1776 down to the present time, maintaining the highest character for itself, conferring lustre upon the history of the State; and there is no man living more worthy of the name, with all its prestige, than Thos. S. Ashe, of Anson county. In this District, guided by principle only, and determined to support the nominee who might be chosen to bear the white man's banner, this name alone is worth two thousand votes to the Conservative ticket.

In the central tier of counties, where Mr. Ashe's professional engagements have confined him, he is stronger than any other man in the State—in the counties of Randolph and Stanly alone, which are considered as debateable ground, he can poll five hundred more votes than any other living man—in the whole State of North Carolina, wherever he shall be able to show himself, his eminent abilities and his purity and dignity and force of character will cause themselves to be felt; and an honest and upright people, who love honesty and uprightness, will reward the faithful, capable and honest public servant, and the pure and honest christian gentleman.

In political connections, Mr. Ashe was an old line Whig—firm, faithful and unyielding. He was a Union man up to the withdrawal of the State from the Union. He was a just and true Confederate during the whole of the war, bearing the fortunes of his fellow-citizens without a murmur. Since the surrender he has been faithful to all of his obligations, thoroughly loyal to the United States government, her Constitution and her laws; but unalterably opposed, without compromise or qualification, to the radical, leveling, inconsistent, unprincipled course of his contemptible competitor. Nothing mean, nothing cowardly, nothing inconsistent, nothing reproachable, nothing which is not dictated by high-toned honor and Christian purity, can be found in the record of Thomas S. Ashe.

We commend him earnestly to the Conservatives of the State, and in behalf of the State, for the sake of her proud past, her buoyant hope of a glorious future, we again thank the Executive Committee for his nomination.

A GOOD BEGINNING.

The results of the new registration in Richmond, which we gave in full on yesterday, should open the eyes of the negroes and their allies in the Convention to their real strength in Virginia. Our people will no longer refuse to register and vote, but will do all they can to protect themselves. The white men of this city who refused or neglected to register last fall have nearly all now done so. The gain in this city, notwithstanding that the blacks also registered more names than they did last year, amounts to over one thousand. Richmond constitutes less than one-twentieth of the State, and as the whites of the country registered even less generally last year than did those of Richmond, it may be safely assumed that when the lists are again opened we shall add twenty thousand to the white majority in the State—thus making that majority between thirty and forty thousand.

We have consistently maintained all the while that there could be no danger as to the future of Virginia. A white majority of fifteen thousand was sufficient assurance that the whites must have the rule in this State; for while no negroes are coming to this country from abroad, there are many whites constantly coming hither from both Europe and the Northern United States, and the natural increase of the whites will be much more rapid than that of the negroes, who take little or no care of their offspring. But with a majority of FORTY THOUSAND VOTES—which indicates a majority in population of two hundred thousand—this assurance is rendered "doubly sure." We already have the State.—Richmond Dispatch.

TENNESSEE.—The stories telegraphed by Gen. Thomas about the condition of things in Tennessee are quite as ridiculous as Forney's as regard to Col Mosby and the Maryland militia. What terrible blows we must have laid upon the shoulders of our Northern "brethren" for four years! They seem to think that the Southern people are always ready for a fight. We need not assure them that they are entirely mistaken; for they won't believe us. But if they would only listen to us, we could tell them that the Southern people have as little idea of going to war again as the Northern people can possibly have.

A STRAW.—A gentleman from Thomasville, N. C., informs us that the white men of that section who sent the "trouly loil" as delegates to the Raleigh Convention, will now, he thinks, to a man, vote against the Constitution, that these same delegates have helped to frame. Most of these people are Dutch, and for years have been in favor of setting the negro free, but only, it seems, for the purpose of colonizing and removing him from their midst. They are decidedly opposed to putting the ballot box in his possession and to taking them unto their 'bosom' as a man and brother.—Danville Times.

Thad Stevens has been dying a long time and Prentice thinks there can be nothing unkind in wishing him out of his misery.

Mr. Dickens is to receive the compliment of a dinner to be given him in New York, on the 18th of April, by the press of the country.

Prentice says of a charge against Grant that "he won't hold water," that it is only justice to the General to say that he doesn't often try.

Chief Justice Chase is credited at Washington with saying that it would be a strange thing to impeach a man for a difference of political opinions.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evi lence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, who adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $300; five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $200, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same, with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they depend higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is most favored for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a faculty of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms moderate and accommodations.

The young ladies of worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is to be obtained at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters eat them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

The Ticket Complete!—Mr. Ashe Accepts!!

We have the inexpressible satisfaction of announcing that the Hon. THOMAS S. ASHE, of Anson, accepts the nomination for Governor tendered him by the Conservative State Executive Committee. This information was communicated to us, by telegraph, last night.

This decision of Mr. Ashe's is no more than we expected from his approved patriotism and devotion to the interests of North Carolina.

In him we have a standard bearer, of whom we may be justly proud. In all the elements of the Christian patriot and gentleman, he is a model man.

Mr. Ashe will, doubtless, however great the personal sacrifice, at once enter upon an active canvass. Wherever he may go, we anticipate the happiest results from his presence and his eminent capacity as an effective, dignified and able speaker.

And, now, friends,—white men of North Carolina,—to YOUR WORK! If we are true to ourselves, our race and our country, we can elect him and defeat the odious mongrel Constitution.—AND WE WILL!

WAYNE.—The Conservatives of this county have nominated the following excellent ticket for legislative and local offices, viz:

For Sheriff.—Jno. T. Kennedy.

For Commons.—C. S. Wooten, E. A. Wright.

For Superior Court Clerk.—H. G. Hollowell.

For County Court Clerk.—T. W. Slocumb.

Two delegates from each Captain's District were appointed to meet the Greene county delegates, on Friday, to nominate a Conservative candidate for the Senatorial District.

THOUGHTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

No. 1.

THE ARTICLE ON EDUCATION IN THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTION.

To the People of North Carolina:

In a short time, the new Constitution will be submitted to you for ratification or rejection. All of you are much concerned to know what that Constitution proposes; to understand its direct assertions, and its intended constructions; to comprehend its immediate consequences and its remote effects. The Article before us is one of immense consequences, and, if adopted and executed according to Radical policy, will stamp eternal degradation upon North Carolina. If it is not intentionally wicked, it is accidentally nefarious or stupidly diabolical. Its effect will be systematic demoralization, organic amalgamation and preconcerted infamy. But let us examine the proposed law.

1. The origin of the proposed Article.

It is absolutely a Yankee measure; it has nothing Southern, humane or desirable in it. We mean nothing disrespectful by the term Yankee; we simply intend to signify the New England type of life, which is not only hateful to Southern people, but is a by-word and a synonym among all nations for every thing impertinent, impudent and disagreeable. When these Northern citizens met in Raleigh, in anxious and secret conclave, a few days before the Convention, and counted noses and offices, they discovered that there was not enough for all.—Every one wanted a good fat office; that was the reward, they thought, justly due for loving the negro; that was their object in coming here, and, as Apostles for the spread of Yankeeism, they could neither execute their mission, nor receive their beloved gold, without a good paying office. It became painfully apparent that at least one of their number could neither be Judge nor go to Congress; they, therefore, patriotically resolved that one should be "Superintendent of Public Instruction," and in order that the office might correspond in authority and pay with the aspirations and necessities of the occupant, they resolved that one of their number should be Chairman of the Committee on Education.—True, others were on the Committee, but that was for dignity and effect; they were expected to bow down before the superior wisdom of Massachusetts, and they did it even to the very dust. This Yankee spirit is the Wandering Jew among the treasure houses and money vaults of nations; it loves gold, with all its heart and mind and strength, and hates its neighbor with equal force. Nurtured in a false philosophy, an erroneous theology, and a partisan fanaticism, vastly superior to the Caliphs of Bagdad, it honestly believes that colored people are intrinsically better than Southern whites, and that an unknown country parson from New England is a more reliable legislator, than the most experienced statesmen South of the Potomac. This enormous self conceit, added to extreme pecuniary leanness, taking advantage of a disposition somewhat prevalent, that concedes all things, profane and sacred, to Yankee greediness, has arranged an office of Education, and made it equal, if not superior, to a position in the Senate of the United States.

The office was created for the good of the occupant and the promotion of the party; it cannot have the most remote intention of good to the people. It was probably written in New England, or at Disunion headquarters in Washington City. It is doubtful whether the imported element in Raleigh had astuteness of brain sufficient to finish up a scheme so totally selfish, so consistently cruel, and so thoroughly destructive. In some place, and by some person or persons, it was manifestly a job done to order, to be shown to the Convention, but not to be touched. When Messrs. Durham, Graham & Co. attempted to civilize the Articles a little, by way of amendments, the party, seemingly by compact already formed, instantly broke the heads of the rebels with the celebrated, imported, Radical previous sledge hammer, and thereby wrote it in history that Radical programmes are not to be touched with impunity. This is the house that Jack built, the way he did it, and who is to live in it. These sapient, modest strangers now ask the good people of a great State to solemnly vote it into their organic law, that an office shall be created to appease Congressional longings, and that shall give to some unknown wanderer a dictatorship over rebel imps and Ethiopian darlings.—The office, as intended, and as it will be managed by Radicals, is utterly unnecessary, and was no more intended for the good of the citizen than the militia bill was for the peace of the country. It is simply a legalized mode by which some adventurer may take money from the pockets of the people, and may, at the same time, force Yankeeism upon the State.

2. The proposed Article declares, that the Legislature shall make provision for free public Schools in all the Districts, in all the Counties of the State.

To support these Schools, the people must be taxed. There is positively no other way. The income from the general School Fund will not amount to anything of consequence for many years to come. To maintain such a system, at least $400,000 must be raised; and of this, not less than $350,000 must come by taxing property. Can the people pay this in addition to their other taxes? Is it not an utter impossibility? Does not the party know that it is impracticable? Does not this Yankee spirit have an ulterior and cruel intent, an intent worthy of Haynau or Borgia? Under the guise of a popular idea, do they not wish to grind property holders to powder? They confessedly wish to bring everything to their own level, which, as they have taken it here, is that of the negro.—They intend property shall change hands, and that all that is elegant and refined shall be blackened, blasted and brutalized. If any one thinks to the contrary, let him examine the enormous sums which this Constitution levies on property, and the mode and spirit in which it is done. This Yankeeized agrarianism raises its grisly front in every paragraph of the Constitution, sweeps its puritanic talons around every acre of our domain, and is the most rapacious of all the bloody devils of unmerciful conquest. These beggarly framers of the Constitution are magnificently free with other people's possessions; they have very little property themselves, perhaps a majority have none at all; they do not represent either the talent, property or true citizenship of the State, and yet they presume to lay a heavier tax upon us than was ever known in this country. The immensity of this foreign presumption has no parallel in history, and is unequaled in truth or fiction, save by its own barbarous cruelty.—Shall we ratify our own ruin; shall we kindle a fire-brand to burn the deeds to our possessions? Shall we submit to an additional tax of $400,000, to make a good place for one who hates us by instinct, and fanatically believes in social equality?—Pause, countrymen of Macon and Gaston!—Look at this huge dead fall that is intended to catch a whole State at once! If you ratify this Constitution, you may prepare to pay such a tax, as was never known in America.

3. The proposed Article says, if the Legislature makes no provision, then the plan submitted by the Superintendent shall be the law.

This is the delicious part of the whole thing,—the Yankee gem of legislation. Of course, the Legislature will not agree upon any plan. Such a result was never intended. The Yankee Superintendent is to have it all his own way. He is to arrange the system in all its details, and he alone is to say how much tax we must pay. He may make it a million, if he chooses. He is to be the autocrat of North Carolina, with more legislative power than was ever placed in one man's hands in any free government, with an absolute power of taxation unknown even to the monarchies of Europe, and a control from which there is no appeal. This is the plan proposed by these very unpretending strangers. They propose that all the districts shall build houses according to plans which will be brought from Massachusetts; the houses to cost from $300 to $1,000; each district to raise the money and build its own house. Not to be done voluntarily, of course, but by coercion. The law says nothing about it, but these are their private plans, their pet hobbies, which they show to their friends. They have already said, that teachers cannot be found in the State; they must be brought from Massachusetts. North Carolinians are ignorant boobies in their opinion; they want Yankees to teach the schools.

These are some of the things proposed, and for which they have made provision by contingencies and constructions of law. They honestly think this best for themselves, and therefore, for the State. They think they know more than any Legislature, and they want sufficient power to carry all their plans into effect. Will you vote for the Mogul? Do you propose to give him power which you know he will use for your ruin? We hope not.

4. The proposed Article says, the Public Schools are to be free to all the children in the State.

The free schools are to be mixed. White and negro children are to go to the same schools, sit on the same seats, and recite together in the same lessons. Any objection to this, these latter day saints call prejudice. They say we must get over this, that it is all foolish and wrong. They pretend that mixed schools are not to be forced by law, that it will be left to the districts to decide each one for itself. This is a subterfuge, a palliation, a mere sugar coating to the black pill. Even this would be intolerable. In half the State the negroes would have a majority and would rule the schools in their own way; in other places there would be endless difficulties. But this is not the intention. The real design is to give all the benefits of the Public Schools to the negroes and the very few whites who will go with them. The law, as proposed, will admit this plan, and a careful comparison of its different parts will show that it cannot really be executed in any other way. Their intention was fully proved by Mr. Durham, in the Convention. He put the question to a direct test, and was not only voted down overwhelmingly, but was treated with a disrespect, unworthy any deliberative body. The only exemption from mixed schools, will be where they are all black. The Yankee autocrats will execute this law with a relish. They will enjoy it. It will be as delicious as a Southern home was to a hungry bummer. They say we are aristocratic and haughty, and that it is a part of their mission to teach us our true station. They would greatly delight to place negro teachers over white children. They are fond of arranging colors in that way, and, in their opinion, it would be good for the whites and justice to the negro.

According to Radical interpretation, this would be the dawn of the millennium, an answer to the prayers of Henry Ward Beecher, and his amiable sister Mrs. Stowe, and a fulfillment of all the prophecies of the leveling school. The adoption of this article, and the election of a Yankee Superintendent, would be a greater triumph to New England propagandism, which, being interpreted, means the increase of mulattoes, than all that was ever effected by Grant or Sherman. All Massachusetts would hold a grand, infernal jubilee, when she learned that some of her most insignificant sons had unlimited power over the education of a Southern State. Lean, hungry Pilgrims would come in "shoals" to behold the spectacle and fill their pockets. What say you, ye North Carolinians; will you have mixed schools? Will you ratify such a law? Not yet, say 90,000 true men!

5. The proposed Article requires that all children shall be sent to school at least sixteen months.

This is the legislative bed of Procrustes to force equality and insure mixed schools. It will bear terribly hard on hundreds of poor white Radicals, but these fanatical reformers care nothing for that. They care for none but themselves. Vast numbers cannot send their children to any other than the Public Schools, and, as these will all be mixed, they have thus devised a sagacious, merciful plan, by which they will force all the poor white people into equality with the negro. This is the real intention of this provision. What they cannot do by persuasion, they intend to do by force.

We beg to call the special attention of the industrious, honest, hard-working people of the Western counties to some facts.—Our Western people are told that, as they have but few negroes among them, they will not be troubled with mixed schools.—This is a great mistake. It is the very portion of the State where mixed schools, if the new Constitution passes, are to be most abundant. The bill compels the establishment of schools and the attendance of all children between 5 and 18 years old.—Where the negroes are few, as in the West, there are not enough black children in each School District to have a negro school, even if separate schools are allowed. With a Yankee Superintendent, he would be sure to force them into the schools with the white children.

This is refined cruelty, a token of what is to come. The rich can evade it by sending to other schools, out of the State, but the poor will have no escape. Think of it, ye men of families. You may die soon. Your wife and babes may be left without much of this world's goods. After you are gone, your children may be forced to go to school sixteen months with negroes. Your daughter, seventeen years old, may be compelled to recite with negro boys of twenty. They may make love to her, and call her pet names, and none can defend her. Open your eyes, fellow-countrymen; see into what a gulf you are about to be led. Will you vote for such a measure as this? Not yet, not yet! Neither now nor ever hereafter!

6. The proposed Article opens the University to all colors, dismisses the old Trustees, and makes the Institution a political machine.

A more outrageous government was never devised, than that proposed for the University. It is red-hot with vengeance against honest and good men, and is intended as a great manufacture of Radicalism and proscription. The whole plan is already arranged. The President is already named, and everything down to bell-ringer has been planned. They are to have twelve professors. The present occupants, one excepted, are to be turned out with contempt, and all but three or four are to be freshly imported Yankees. The State is to be taxed to pay the present University debt, which is over $50,000, and an annual tax is to be levied so as to give tuition free to all the students; that is estimated at $25,000 per annum. In this way they will bring negroes into the University in very considerable numbers, and will drive nearly all the whites away. This is their plan and what they intend.—Do you want such a University? Are you ready for this additional taxation? What good will this do the white men of the State? Their intention was fairly tested by Mr. Durham in the Convention. He may not have known their plans; if he did, he is a gentleman of great moderation to keep as cool as he did. In giving their schemes, we have only told a part. The beauties of Radicalism are endless.

7. The proposed Article presents the Legislature from establishing any Schools of any kind contrary to the foregoing principles.

The Article does not say so directly, but that is the construction intended. They intend that all schools shall be open to all colors, and that no others shall exist. It is intended to force all the Colleges in the State to the same conditions. By comparing the parts of the Constitution on Finance, Corporations and Education, it will be apparent to all, that the Legislature is to be prevented from assisting any Institution that does not accord with the general rule, which is free entrance to all colors; hence, if at any time the Legislature, having a white majority, should wish to create and assist an Institution exclusively for whites, it would be prevented by the Constitution. But the intention is to go farther. They intend to prevent any College or Academy from ever being chartered, that does not admit all colors. Their construction is, that all chartered Institutions are public, being creations of the State for the public good; and then they will insist that the law says that all public Schools shall be open to all colors. Thus they intend to bind us hand and foot, and educate our children to their social equality and amalgamation.—The plot thickens,—you can now see the hoof, horns and tail of the beast. Away with the monster!

These are the general principles of the Article on Education. They are here shown briefly, but accurately. No attempt has been made to portray their frightful consequences. To some extent the reader can see them for himself. They ask the people of North Carolina to adopt this as a part of their Constitution. There are 71,-657 registered colored voters in the State. Will they blindly vote for a law, unjust in itself, and ruinous in its consequences even to them? Are not 50,000 of them opposed to social equality? Do they not see that the consequences are degradation and death? These Yankees are striving to force a condition undesired by a majority of either whites or blacks. There are 103,060 registered white voters in the State. Not 10,000 in all are in favor of mixed schools and social equality. Pause, then, fellow-countrymen! A frightful gulf is before you. Do not vote for this Constitution. Do not make a law that will curse your children's children to the latest generation. Let us reject this Constitution, and hurl this mad party from power. As soon as that is done, another Convention will be called. We will then fairly and honestly make provision, as far as we can do it, for all the children,—the schools to be separate, but the same provision to be made for the colored children that is made for the whites. This is the honest and proper course and the only one under which we can live.

Finally, the Article on Education is Protean in its character. It can be made to mean almost anything. Its good or evil will depend largely upon the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The Constitution may be adopted, though we will labor to defeat it. On the Conservative ticket, we offer you a good man for Superintendent. Vote for him. He has nothing to do with politics, but he is well known to the State as in every way qualified for the office. We know he is opposed to mixed schools, and is in favor of making a fair and equal provision for both white and colored. Defeat the Yankee-Radical nominee for Superintendent, and if we must have such an odious Constitution, let us have a native whom we know and can trust!

ANDREWS, of Wake, who deserted his easel for Constitution making, and who was, a few months since, an avowed opponent of negro suffrage, succeeded in rushing through the mongrel Convention, just before its adjournment, an ordinance removing the property qualification for Mayor and Commissioners of the city of Raleigh, and rendering those offices eligible to negroes, without any qualification. This, we suppose, was intended as a quid pro quo to the negroes, for electing him to eight dollars per day. Ignorant negroes, having no interest in the city government, except in so far as it may give them the largest license, under this ordinance, and in view of their registered majority, may monopolize the management of our municipal affairs and tax the white property holders as they wish. Will the men of Raleigh stand that? What say the merchants, grocers, &c? Does Andrews expect to be made Mayor, as the reward of his legislation for the negro, whom he affected to hate so bitterly a short while since?

POPULATION OF ALABAMA.—The intelligent correspondent of the New York World states that the census of Alabama was well taken in 1866, under an order of the Convention of 1865-'6, which makes a different exhibit from the census of 1860. By the census of 1866, there were in that State, 523,799 whites and 423,445 blacks, showing upwards of 99,000 more whites than blacks, and showing a larger decrease of negroes than whites in six years. From this statement, it would seem, that if the white males of that State had registered, they could largely out-vote the blacks.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE APPRENTICED TO NEGRO MASTERS!—That is one of the issues. The mongrel Convention refused to prohibit such a thing!

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES! That is one of the issues.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

THE DISGRACEFUL CLOSING SCENES!

Corn-Field Dance and Ethiopian Minstrelsy!!

HAM-RADICALISM IN ITS GLORY!!!

After the members present had affixed their signatures to the new Constitution, on Monday night,

Tourgee moved to take a recess, for a quarter of an hour, flourishing, at the same time, in his hand, a Freedman's Bureau song book.

The motion, being put, was carried, and Tourgee then repaired to the Secretary's desk, and struck up the song "We'll rally round the flag, boys."

Immediately, the desk was surrounded by a crowd of inside and outside negroes, of both white and black complexions, who lent all the power of their lungs to the chorus.

As the song continued, the excitement increased,—hands were joined all around, and a regular African corn field dance ensued.

Each man commenced singing his own song. Among the ditties, that could be distinguished in the terrific din, were such as: "Sal's in the garden sittin' sand;" "Come out of the Wilderness;" "Yallow gal, can't you come out to night;" "Hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree;" "Old John Brown;" "Yankee Doodle;" "Hail Columbia;" "Star Spangled Banner;" "Sound the Timbrel," &c., &c.

This bedlam scene was kept up until sheer fatigue induced the participants to stop for breathing time.

Some staggered to their seats—others resting their bones upon the floor. Kalvin J., thoroughly blown, managed to crawl to the Chair, and closing his eyes and leaning his head gracefully back, he yielded up himself to a dignified repose.

For some minutes a deep silence reigned over the house. All seemed to be asleep—Not a sound could be heard to disturb the solemn stillness, save, now and then, a deep and long drawn snore from the "archives of gravity."

Presently, Kalvin J. started up, rubbing his eyes, and, gazing wildly around over the hall, convulsively clutched his hammer and brought it down with a thundering rap, and in an awful voice sung out: "Delegates, arise; resume your seats and come to order straightway."

This startled the animals. Various grunts, snarls and growls were indulged in, and full half an hour passed before their keeper could get them in performing order.

Three or four ordinances for providing fat places for different pets, both black and white, were read and passed, when another motion for a recess was put and carried.

A scene somewhat similar, but a great deal worse, if possible, than the first, ensued, and continued up to the hour of adjournment.

At 7 o'clock, next morning, the show again opened. The animals came creeping out of their cages, one by one, looking a good deal used up.

No business was transacted until about ½ past nine o'clock, when some two or three more ordinances of the same character were passed.

Another recess being taken, Col. Heaton took the Chair, and loud calls were made for Gen. Miles, who, being a bashful man, excused himself in a few remarks.

Gen. Littlefield, being called on, arose and expatiated "a la spread eagle," and concluded his harangue, by singing something to the tune of "old John Brown's soul is marching on,"—the house, at his request, joining in with the chorus.

The Jaybird from Washington, and the Ready Relief Judge (would be) of the Supreme Court, Mr. Rodman, threw their whole souls into the melody.

Byrnes, the fat Secretary, and others, being called upon for songs, proceeded to regale the Constitutional and dignified Convention with "Sherman's march to the Sea," and other songs, appropriate to the occasion of celebrating the framing of a Constitution for the free white people of North Carolina.

These disgraceful scenes, disgusting even had they been enacted in a brothel, were kept up until, in the language of Mr. Williams, of Sampson, the "dirty concern" adjourned,—subject to the call of the President and Secretary.

MARRIED,

At the residence of Richard Noble, in Lenoir County N. C, on the 8th inst., by Jesse W. Kinsey, Esq., Mr. JAS. A. MCDANIEL, of Cumberland Co., N. C., to Miss FRANCES NOBLE.

DIED:

In this City, on Wednesday, the 4th inst., after an illness of less than thirty-six hours, Mrs. GARRETT RYAN, aged about 74 years. She had been for many years an attached and exemplary member of the Presbyterian Church. Her character was one of great simplicity, dignity and worth; and her piety of an elevated and noble type. She was one of the few remaining links that bound the present generation to the historic past,—her father, Col. Joel Lane, having been the owner of the land on which the Capital of the State is built. We all do fade as a leaf, but there is a rest that remaineth to the people of God.

Martin.—Geo. W. Ward, N. B. Fagan, H. D. Roberson.

OUR WARM acknowledgments are tendered to W. H. Avera, Esq., of Johnston, for a club of twenty six subscribers to the Weekly Sentinel. Our intelligence from Johnston is of the most encouraging and cheering character.

THUNDER STORM.—Tuesday was an excessively warm day, and at night we had a very violent thunder-storm. It was a happy sequence to the adjournment of the mongrels,—greatly purifying the atmosphere.

HOLLY SPRINGS.—OUR COUNTY CANVASSERS.—We are gratified to learn that quite a large crowd was assembled at Holly Springs, on yesterday, to hear the Conservative County Canvassers. Messrs. DeCarteret, C. M. Busbee and G. M. Whiting addressed the crowd ably and effectively. An excellent barbecue was provided. Not a single white Radical who is to be found in the concourse. Hurrah for Holly Springs and the County Canvassers!

A NICE PLACE.—Our friends, Bradley & Christophers, on Fayetteville Street, are enterprising men, and are keeping up fully with the times. Calling in at their establishment, a day or two since, we found their shelves, counters and cases, well filled with everything that is luxurious and attractive. We take pleasure in commending them and their house to the community.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Chas. Read & Son, Norfolk, make an attractive announcement to Stave Getters, in our advertising columns. This is a business which we hope to see largely entered into, and this excellent Firm holds out the best inducements to those disposed to engage in it.

COUNTY COMMITTEES FOR ENROLLING.

We are glad to perceive that the gentlemen appointed in the several Captain's Districts, by the county meetings, in a number of counties, for enrolling the names of all voters who are pledged or known to be supporters of Conservative principles, and who will vote against the new Constitution, are at their work.

The Conservatives of Craven have appointed one hundred gentlemen to secure the names of voters, to urge the unregistered to register at the next registration and to support the party.

The District Committees of Halifax county are at work enrolling. We regard this as one of the most important parts of the plan of organization. It is really necessary to accomplish victory.

The State Executive Committee, deeming it best to leave the mode of carrying this plan out to the counties themselves, have not published any general plan. They urge, however, immediate and active attention to this matter. Let suitable men be appointed in every county, and let them go to work at once.

The following points are to be observed:

1. Let the name of every voter, who will vote against the new Constitution, and who gives active support to the Conservative principles and candidates, in each Captain's District, be enrolled at once.

2. Let, also, the name of every unregistered voter, who will register at the next registration, and who will also vote with us, be enrolled. All white persons, as well as such colored persons as determine, of their own accord, to vote with us, should be registered.

3. It is important and also desirable that the names of all men who call themselves white, but who intend to vote for the new Constitution and for the Holden Radical ticket, should be enrolled. We want to know the white men who are against their color—who go for a mongrel government and oppose a white man's government. Let them be enrolled.

4. The enrollers should be at their precinct registrations and at their precinct polls, to see who registers and who votes.—Let us be up and doing. DOWN WITH THE BLACK CONSTITUTION, and the RUINOUS TAXATION!

DOCUMENTS WANTED—THEY MUST BE HAD,—MONEY IS NEEDED.

We are frequently receiving letters from different portions of the State, calling for documents for the campaign. The State Executive Committee are also receiving similar letters, as well as individuals, in this City. An active and zealous Conservative in the West, writing to a friend in this city, says:

"You must send us reading matter "for the million." We want short, pointed essays, brief conversations in familiar style, speeches, hits for the people, and copies of our "Declaration of Principles," adopted in Raleigh, 5th. of Feb.

The country is deluged with Radical documents—Radical lies. Every mail brings them by the peck or some greater measure. They are thrust into every man's hand, no less vulgus. They are in every house in the country. This is not an exaggeration. I beg you not to think it such, and I tell you these must be met. Don't forget this. Think of it. I tell you whatever is done must be done now.

As soon as the Convention finishes its task on the Constitution, we ought to have hundreds of copies for every County. The "Reds." will not send it, at least to Conservatives. My opinion is, they will keep it as dark as possible; they will keep it from the masses, if they can, and hence, unless our friends throw it broad cast over the State, hundreds and thousands will vote for it, thinking it will do, without knowing what it is."

Such appeals ought to be attended to at once. The State Executive Committee are anxious to meet these calls, promptly and fully. But what can they do, without money? Our friends, every where, make these calls, without once thinking they can not be met without money. Why do not our friends send substantial aid to the Committee? Our friends have been written to, but, as yet, the Treasury is empty. We have arranged to print a number of "tracts for the people," "Campaign documents," "the new Constitution," and every thing needful. This cannot be done without the means. Help, friends, at once. The Conservative press throughout the State are doing all they can, but they cannot do every thing. Who will come to the rescue?

It is understood that Radical presses and leaders are abundantly supplied with large amounts of money for campaigning purposes, printing, the circulation of documents, &c., through an agency established in this City.

JUDICIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The undersigned Committee, to provide for holding a Convention of the counties of the proposed First Judicial District, to wit: Bertie, Hertford, Gates, Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden, and Currituck, to nominate a Conservative candidate for the office of Solicitor, appoint Tuesday, the 6th day of April next, as the time, and Edenton as the place, for holding the same, and do earnestly recommend action in the several counties in order to their being represented therein.

W. N. H. SMITH,
M. L. ECRE, } Committee.
March 11th., 1868.

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION.

That is the watch-word of the white men of North Carolina.

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION! That is the slogan.

Shall MARRIAGE BETWEEN NEGROES and WHITES—amalgamation,—be allowed? That is one of the issues.

HARNETT COUNTY—CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

At a large Mass Meeting of the Conservatives of Harnett County, at the Court House in Lillington, on Tuesday, March 10, 1868,

On motion, Col. Archd S. McNeill was appointed President, and Neill S. Stewart, Jas. A. Johnson and John Elliot were appointed Vice Presidents, and A. B. Horton and Dr. W. M. McNeill were appointed Secretaries.

The object of the meeting was explained by the President.

The resolutions of the Conservative Ass meeting, at Raleigh, were read.

On motion Gen. A. D. McLean, Dr. John McCormick, R. C. Belden, Esq., Jas. P. Hodges, Esq., and Col. John A. Spears were appointed a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of this meeting.

The Committee retired, and C. H. Coffield and J. T. Reardon, Esqrs., made very eloquent speeches.

Gen. A. D. McLean, on behalf of the Committee on resolutions, made the following report:

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States, deliberately and wisely framed for the promotion of the liberty, security, peace and prosperity of the people, has been violated in letter and spirit by the representatives of a faction of the people, prompted by bigoted bitterness and sustained only by appeals to the base passions and expectations of sectional aggrandisement; and, whereas, the citizens of ten Southern States have been violently deprived of rights inalienable, obviously to perpetuate a corrupt organization, and because, in defiance of the principles of all wise human Governments, demagogues have conspired to subject civilized communities and a superior race to the rule of an unenlightened class, utterly unable to appreciate the privileges of political freedom and discharge the responsibilities of citizenship; And whereas, this diabolical policy is proposed and insisted upon, with no conceivable motive other than a malignant thirst for vengeance and a purpose to retain party ascendancy; And, whereas, an election will be had, in pursuance of Federal Legislation, which will afford an opportunity to the voters of North Carolina to protest against, and, so far as they may, to prevent, the consummation of the degradation of the people, the ruin of their interest and the dishonor of the State:

Therefore, Resolved, That it is the settled conviction of the white men of Harnett County, that the preservation of Republican freedom in the United States can only be accomplished through a strict observance of the Constitution, the fundamental law of the land.

Resolved, That the Senate and House of Representatives, at Washington, by forcibly depriving the States of their right of representation, by attempting to destroy coequal members of the Federal Union, by assuming unauthorized prerogatives, and by illegally conferring immunities and franchises, intended only for the white race, upon persons of African descent, have usurped unauthorized power and thereby subverted the Constitution.

Resolved, That we announce our devotion to the Constitution, proclaim our purpose to support it, and solemnly pledge our best efforts to sustain all measures tending to its re-establishment.

Resolved, therefore, That we, the white men of Harnett county, will unite in the formation of a White Man's Party, devoted to white man's supremacy, and the maintainance of the Constitution.

Resolved, That to secure efficient organization, we ratify and adopt the plan prescribed by the Conservative Convention of North Carolina.

The foregoing resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, further, That this meeting resolves itself into a permanent Conservative Club, for the purpose of perfecting the organization recommended by the Conservative State Convention of North Carolina, and that the following gentlemen be appointed District Canvassers:

Johnsonville.—Malcom Morrison, K P Harman, Alex Murchison, John A McDonald.

Barbecue.—John Maxwell, J P K Harrington, Jas Cameron.

Upper Little River.—John Ray, Sr., John A McDougald, Nathan Douglas.

Stewart's Creek.—J P Hodges, Dr J T McLean, W H Allen, W B McKay.

Averasboro'.—J C Saries, Anson Parker, H A Barnes.

Grove.—Dr J S Neighbors, Col E Stewart.

Neill Creek.—Dr Wm Williams, D McN McKay, Jas A Johnson.

Hector's Creek.—J H Mathews, Eli Carter, M Wilder.

Buckhorn.—M V Prince, Dr B C Williams, Capt Morgan.

Resolved, That a copy of the above resolutions be sent to the Raleigh Sentinel, with a request for publication.

Correspondence of the New York Express.

THE HOUSE TRICK IN REGARD TO THE McCARDLE CASE.

WASHINGTON, March 13, 1868.

A rascally trick was perpetrated upon the House yesterday, by cheating in a section as an amendment to a mere revenue bill, the object of which is to take from the Supreme Court jurisdiction of the McCardle case. The managers of this trick played it through the House, after the Logan Wyckrow, when the House was in such disorder that scarcely a word could be heard of what was said, or anything seen of what was going on.

The House, half the time, is in such disorder, that unless a member sits right under the nose of the Clerks, he cannot even guess what is going on. Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, much to his credit, was the instrument of this trick, and Mr. Sebenck helped him on with it.

But this cheat in parliamentary cards will not succeed. The President will veto the act, and before it can be re-passed in the House and Senate, in all probability the Supreme Court will decide in the McCardle case. If, however, they have not decided in the ten days allowed the President to keep the bill, there is doubt whether, when the "appeal" has been texted and concluded in the Supreme Court, they will recognize the repeal of the former right to appeal.

What is wicked and infamous in all this is the miserable attempt thus to defraud the Supreme Court of the United States out of the jurisdiction of the McCardle case, upon the principle and belief that the Court, as far as the McCardle case reaches, has decided the military reconstruction laws unconstitutional.

THE MONEY SCARE AT THE ARSENAL.—The War Department scare seems to have been much more severe on the Great Captain than had been imagined. We learn that on Saturday night the greatest excitement prevailed at the city Arsenal. The guards were doubled during the night. The men all laid on their arms, and extra ammunition was served out to the entire force.—Guns were hauled out from their resting places, and batteries placed in condition to move to the defence of the War Building at a moment's warning.—Washington Express, 17th.

The Richmond Whig says the South is now much more orderly and tranquil and peaceable than the North.

THE IMPEACHMENT.—THE M'CARDLE CASE.

WASHINGTON, March 18, M.

It is stated that the impeachment managers are examining the President's witnesses, with a view of shortening the trial by admitting any point he may desire and be able to prove.

The McCardle opinion, it is said is prepared, Miller and Swayne dissenting. The opinion is said to be strongly adverse to the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts, but it is doubtful whether it will be promulgated before the Bill forbidding it becomes a law. Judgment cannot be rendered after the Act removing jurisdiction becomes a law, vide Chase vs. State of Georgia.

HOUSE.—A bill declaring the provisions of the State Constitutions, making political distinctions on account of color, void was discussed at great length.

Sloo cox proposed a substitute, giving suffrage to every male born or naturalized citizen of the United States, and forbidding distinctions of any kind on any account, except crime at common law and supported it by an hour's speech.

The bill and substitute were referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Farnsworth, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill admitting Alabama to representation. The bill is somewhat similar to the one recommitted on yesterday.

Farnsworth notified the House that he would ask the vote to-morrow. Adjourned.

GLORIOUS CANDIDATES.—The young sprig of a County Court Lawyer, J. W. Bowman, who is the Radical candidate for Judge of the Superior Court for the 11th District, has never been admitted to practice in the Superior Court. On the contrary, not many days before he received the nomination he applied to Hon. J. L. Bailey, the conservative candidate for the Judgeship, to prepare him for practice in that Court.—Greenhilkins! won't our lives and property be rectus incurable, as a friend of ours would say, when his legal lore is displayed in a court that he has not studied the practice of. Spirit of Story! rise and rebuke such a disgrace.

Cannon, of the 12th District, it is said, spells January with a G, and bankrupt with a capital K in it, but the best of the joke about him is, he didn't know whether his conscience would allow him to take the test oath, in order to become a Register in Bankruptcy, until Starbuck gave him permission, and, we suppose, promised not to speak him for perjury.

Now, wouldn't they make a pretty brace of Superior Court Judges! Wouldn't per jury go unpunished and the practice of the Court be dignified in such hands?—Asheville News.

Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., was finally admonished for a violation of one of the canons of the Episcopal Church by the Right Rev. Bishop Potter, at the Church of the Transfiguration, on Twenty-ninth street, yesterday. The dense crowd assembled acted in such an undignified manner that the presence of policemen was considered necessary to maintain order. Mr. Tyng entered on the arm of his father and received the admonition. On its conclusion his father entered a written protest against the proceedings, and the crowd gathered around Mr. Tyng, Jr., some urging him to address them from the altar and others hissing loudly. The police finally interfered and he withdrew.—N. Y. Herald, 11th.

The intelligent negro loyal leaguers of Vicksburg and vicinity no longer hold meetings at night. Cause—a wild beast, whom they believe to be the devil, has been seen thereabouts, and their loyalty is not proof against their superstition.

Lieutenant Maury is shortly to become one of the Professors in General Lee's College.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 1st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.
The principal markets will be regularly published.
Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.
Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance
As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
